To Whom It May Concern

Please accept this letter as a positive reference for Theatre-A-Go-Go Productions, specifically the production of The Queen of Bingo. The show played at our theatre on October 16 and 17 for three performances. It is very easy to book, does not require much production costs, and is not labor intensive. We were very impressed how helpful the actors (Shane Partlow and Rowan Joseph) were to provide suggestions to market the show in our area, and the willingness to do interviews. Upon arrival, Shane, Rowan, and Cameron Brexler could not have been more pleasant and kind. I can honestly say these actors were extremely low maintenance during their stay with us. They were professional, understanding, and courtesy to our entire staff. It is obvious Shane and Rowan are theatre veterans and have extensive backgrounds on and off the stage. In addition, they provided our audience with wonderful performances as the positive comments were many from our patrons. Most importantly, the show is low risk and made us well needed revenue.

We were fortunate to have worked with Shane and Rowan and were delighted to present The Queen of Bingo.

Sincerely,

Steve Bertani
Managing Director
