

February 26, 2007

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

This is a letter of recommendation for the presentation of "QUEEN OF BINGO". This production starring Shane Partlow, Rowan Joseph and Timothy Shawn is outstanding. From the preshow antics of Father Mac that totally warmed up the audiences and got them all ready to laugh with his zany jokes to Sis and Babes dauber escapades to the bows, our audiences loved it all.

This show is a presenter's dream. Top selling, we sold out every performance; audience appealing and engaging with all the participation; professional, wonderful and thoughtful performers that were easy to work with and helped promote the show; not technically heavy; provided excellent visuals for promotion and came organized for the BINGO game; audiences were thrilled to learn that the turkey was real; easy load-in and easy load-out.

This presentation of sixteen performances was the second production that was presented in our new 200 seat Black Box theatre. It set precedence for this space to only have SOLD OUT shows. Quite a success for a theatre only open a few months.

We received many complements because this was down right fun!
I would say this is a winner!

Many thanks,

Kathy Kuehn, Performing Arts Director
Arvada Center for the Arts and Humanities