Even now, I know what you are thinking!

Dear Mr. Partlow:

This letter is being sent only a day after my friend and I attended your production of the Queen of Bingo. I have wanted to write this as soon as possible to express to you and your team the excitement and delight that the entire audience shared in seeing your comedy. All three of you and the characters you play, absolutely enchanted the entire audience. What an ingenious theme to make an audience a part of a bingo game, which becomes a vehicle for three of the off-the-wall characters.

And what a touch of nostalgia - I can't imagine anyone in the audience, who has ever attended a bingo game, not identifying with the two characters on-stage and their whims, peccadillo's and scathing opinions. The dialog is brilliant. The visual touches are hilarious. I found the Queen of Bingo to be one of the most refreshing plays I have seen in a long time. And, you want to know something? A real coup is the three wild and crazy guys playing two women who are absolute dingbats. They are the new "Odd-Couple." I predict a great future for the Queen of Bingo.

Especially,

Kreskin
